Graphic Design

Ad America specializes in high quality graphics varying from logo design at time of start-up to additional design collateral for an established company, to the design and re-branding of your products. We are here to help. We understand that your reputation is measured by the production and presentation of high quality, well-designed layouts that are delivered for any media in perfectly executed digital files.

Branding is an essential part of graphic design. Ad America positions clients to their best advantage with smart strategy and high-impact creativity. We make our ideas clear and simple, and the design distinctive and beautiful. Ad America offers individual customer consulting where we listen to your comments and we value your feedback – ultimately producing visually stimulating graphic or logo design solutions to your brief.

We collaborate closely with our clients and offer a full set of services. We love making something out of nothing, while taking your ideas and bringing them to life. We are passionate about transforming the average into the exceptional.

Our graphic design services cover but are not limited to:

Logo Design & Branding, Brochure Design, Package Design, Label Design, and more!

Printing

With decades of experience in providing the highest quality printing the industry has to offer, Ad America is your one source for all of your printing needs. Save time and money on your next brochure, booklet, catalog, post card, label, business card, letterhead, envelope, door hanger, DVD cover/insert, greeting card and magnet by choosing Ad America.

In addition to our professional quality printing, we also offer custom bindery and finishing techniques.

Direct Mail Advertising

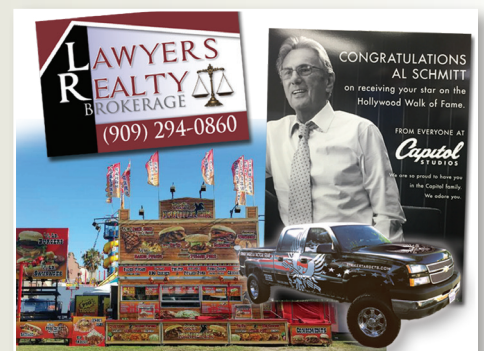

Direct mail advertising is a great solution for businesses to reach a target audience of their choice or to appeal to new clients by the masses. We give our customers Insight & Analytics that turn their raw numbers into useful information to support strategic decision-making and bottom-line growth.

Wide Format Printing

Ad America creates top of the line large format printing that exceeds client expectations with creativity and innovation. We offer a comprehensive range of large format printing services utilizing all current and available forms of media available in our industry. Our Printing services provide a clear message to your targeted audience with production speeds ideal for handling urgent jobs. Our printers produce indoor and outdoor prints on a variety of traditional and unique signage substrates – even textiles.

Vehicle & Trailer Wraps

Another easy and affordable way to advertise to the masses is Vehicle/Trailer wrapping. Here at Ad America, we offer a number of high-quality and affordable wrap solutions for all possibilities. Whether it is a full vehicle or partial wrap, our team welcomes all aspects of this growing trend from design to installation.

Web Design

Professional, Custom, and Affordable Web Design

Your website is most likely the first impression your company has to make and these days, not having a website is as detrimental as not having a phone number. Having an online presence allows potential customers to view your company and what you have to offer, influencing them to make the decision to give you their business.

Make your first impression a good one.

A professional, user friendly website leaves a good impression with potential clients. Ad America is dedicated to providing the best in web design, staying up-to-date on the latest SEO trends, taking advantage of responsive design so mobile viewers can get the most from visiting your site.

We have developed numerous custom website designs that stand out among the others, which include but are not limited to: attorney websites, medical websites, construction, plumbing, and more!

Whether you're a sole proprietor or a corporation, Ad America provides professional service with exquisite, coherent design.

Search Engine Optimization (SEO).

SEO is a marketing technique focused on increasing the visibility in organic (NON-PAID) search engine results. SEO encompasses both the technical and creative elements required to improve rankings, drive traffic, and increase awareness in search engines. Some examples of techniques used for organic SEO include using keywords and keyword analysis, backlinking, link building to improve link popularity, and writing content relevant for readers.

SEO isn't just about building search engine-friendly websites. It's about making your site easier to read for people too.

Search Engine Marketing (SEM).

SEM is a PAID marketing technique that encompasses on purchasing ads. Google AdWords is the most popular method, followed by a significant portion of ads placed on Bing and Yahoo.

Promotional Items

Your company. Your image. Your promotional items.

We've all heard that phrase "you have to spend money to make money" haven't we? But what should we spend our money on?

In most cases, offering a product to someone else will make him or her more likely to do business with you. Studies found that more than half given a promotional item said they would likely do business with that company. Ad America offers a full range of unique promotional products that compliment your company image.

Product Photography

Product Photography You Can Afford

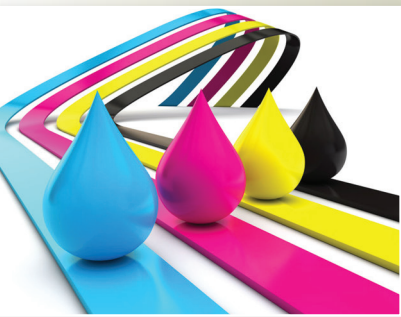

Images rule the world because they hold interest. Images are especially important when you have a product to sell and virtually all tangible products require a good picture in order to sell through the mail or online. We provide digital photography designed to serve small to medium sized businesses with needs for brochures, catalogs, ads and e-commerce sites. Our superior photo special effect skills are utilized by many of our trade customers.

At Ad America, you will have access to a full range of high quality graphic services that include graphic design, web design, digital and offset printing, large format, and promotional products. We have built a reputation for being prompt, precise, competitive, and consistent with every project.

Ad America has continued to surpass the expectations of the most demanding clients. We strive to always create unique products, which only reflect the highest quality images for every client we serve. Our on-time delivery gives our clients peace of mind that when they order projects, they'll get them the way they want them, when they want them, every time.

Serving our clients since 1986, we ensure that we're on top of our industry's latest trends and production capabilities. Combining the latest in technology with years of expertise, persistence and commitment, we consistently provide you with the edge in creative services for your customers.
